

Year 6 – Spring Term

I should already know

The events of the Second World War (Y6). The role of children in Victorian times (Y3).

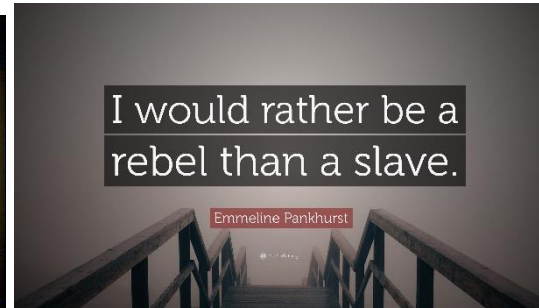

By the end of the unit I will know

- ✓ Experiences of women from the 19th century to now
- ✓ Changes to the life of women
- ✓ The legacy of important Suffragettes

Women of Worthing: Can women have it all?

Vocabulary: Historical dictionary

Activist	Person who campaigns for social change
Campaign	Organised action to achieve a goal
Campaigner	Someone involved in a campaign
Election	Votes for a position or role
Equality	State of being equal i.e. same rights
Government	Group of people with right to lead/govern
Inequality	State of being unequal or difference
Legacy	Long last impacting of an event
Lobbying	To seek influence
Parliament	Those who represent/make the laws
Suffrage	Right to vote in political elections
Suffragette	A women seeking the right to vote using militant actions
Suffragist	Someone in favour of women having rights (peaceful)
Victorian era	1820 – 1914, roughly around the time of Queen Victoria
Vote	To offer opinion or choice between candidates
Women's rights	To consider and accept the views of women usually to make them equal to others

Topic Knowledge	Relevant concepts
Women in the 19th century had a variety of roles mostly at home. The census documents their roles throughout history taken every ten years, usually in the first year of a particular decade. The Suffragette Movement campaigned for equal opportunity to vote in political elections. They used a variety of strategies including marches, campaigns and attacks on the homes of famous or key politicians of the time. In Worthing, two famous Suffrage campaigners who were known to the area were Ellen Chapman (suffragist) and Emily Davison (suffragette). Women contributed to the war effort i.e. factories and farming.	Democracy – the way in which the people decide and vote. War – the impact on local communities. Civilisation, social and cultural history – the way in which the role of women changed. Changes and continuity in the experiences of women.

Emily Davison, a known suffragette.

Ellen Chapman, a known suffragist.

Chronological awareness and timeline